STOTFOLD TOWN COUNCIL

ANTI-FRAUD & CORRUPTION POLICY

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Stotfold Town Council is committed to preventing fraud and corruption, whether from external sources or within the organisation. This policy promotes high ethical standards, encourages prevention, and supports effective detection.
- 1.2 The Town Clerk, as Section 151 Officer under the Local Government Act 1972, is responsible for ensuring sound financial arrangements and advising on the legality of Council decisions. All employees must follow Council policies to ensure transparency and compliance.
- 1.3 Any allegations of fraud, corruption, or theft will be investigated thoroughly and dealt with consistently and proportionately.

2. Definitions

- Fraud: Includes false representation, failure to disclose information, and abuse of position (Fraud Act 2006). Related offences include deception, theft, bribery, and embezzlement.
- Corruption: The misuse of one's position for personal gain, including offering or accepting inducements.
- Theft: Dishonest appropriation of property with the intent to permanently deprive the owner.
- Money Laundering: Concealing the origins of illegally obtained money.
- Bribery: As defined in the Bribery Act 2010, includes offering, receiving, or failing to prevent bribes. The Council must have procedures to mitigate these risks.

3. Reporting Procedure

- 3.1 The Council's expectation is that Members and employees at all levels will comply with Standing Orders, Financial Regulations and Council Policies.
- 3.2 The Council recognises that the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with management. It is essential that employees of the Council report any irregularities, or suspected irregularities to the Town Clerk.
- 3.3 The Town Clerk will, depending on the nature and anticipated extent of the allegations, determine how the allegations are to be investigated. The Town Clerk will then determine the method of further investigation and will then initiate an investigation team where appropriate. The Town Clerk will:
 - Determine the appropriate investigation method.
 - Record and secure all evidence.
 - Notify relevant authorities (e.g. Police, insurers).
 - Implement disciplinary procedures if necessary.

The Council will co-operate with Internal and External audit, HMRC, and relevant bodies.

4. Culture and Prevention

- 4.1 The Council expects all individuals and organisations associated with it to act with integrity. Employees and Members must lead by example and report concerns confidentially.
- 4.2 Preventative measures include:
- Rigorous recruitment checks.
 - Adherence to Council policies and professional standards.
 - Maintenance of robust internal controls and risk management systems.
 - Compliance with the Members' Code of Conduct.

5. Cyber Security and Financial Vigilance

- 6.1 All employees should be vigilant against digital threats such as phishing, ransomware and social engineering could be used for money laundering and illicit requests for money through e-mails.
- 6.2 Any Service that receives money from any external person or body is potentially vulnerable to a money laundering operation. The need for vigilance is vital and if there is any suspicion concerning the appropriateness of the transaction then advice must be sought.
- 6.3 E-mail scams can take the form of either requests for personal financial information such as bank account details or a suggestion of the depositing of funds for money laundering purposes. Employees are advised to forward the email to the Town Clerk and to then immediately delete the email without responding or copying the email to any other person.
- 6.4 The Town Clerk will decide what further action, if any, needs to be taken, including possible referral to the police.

6. Detection and Investigation

- 7.1 Internal controls have been established for financial and other systems within the Council. They are designed to prevent fraud and provide indicators of any fraudulent activity. We also rely on employees, Members, and the public to be alert and to report suspicion of fraud and corruption.
- 7.2 The Town Clerk will be expected to act in accordance with the Council's Disciplinary Procedures where the outcome of the investigation indicates improper behaviour. They will be responsible for referring the matter to the police.

7. Reporting Arrangements and Post Investigation

- 7.1 Where a suspected irregularity is material or could seriously affect the reputation of the Council then the Members must be informed of this by the Town Clerk.
- 7.2 The format and content of reports to the Council will depend on the nature of the alleged fraud. While these reports are confidential, they may need to be shared with relevant parties such as the police, officers, or Members. Reports may be oral or written, and either interim or final. Typically, a preliminary investigation is followed by a brief report, which may recommend a more detailed inquiry. Interim updates may be issued as needed, but the final report will supersede all others and form the basis for the Town Clerk's actions..
- 7.3 For major incidents of fraud or corruption, the Town Clerk will present a summary report to Members in a closed session within six months of the final investigation report. This summary will outline the area investigated, findings, actions taken to prevent recurrence, any financial losses, and recovery efforts. As Section 151 Officer, the Town Clerk will also include a summary of control issues from completed investigations in the annual report to Members, informed by Internal Audit. Depending on the case, informal briefings may also be provided to officers and Members.

- 7.4 The Council will want to see that following an investigation action is taken to minimise future occurrence. This may be a change in the management of specified area, IT systems, procedures in place and the retraining of employees.

8. Training

- 8.1 The Council supports ongoing training for Members and staff, particularly those in control roles, to ensure awareness of fraud risks and procedures.

9. Conclusion

- 9.1 The Council maintains a strong framework of systems and procedures to combat fraud and corruption. These will be regularly reviewed to ensure they remain effective and up to date.

Flying flags at half mast

Authoritative information on flag flying can be found on the website of the Department for Culture, Media, and Sport.

Information is also carried on the website of the Flag Institute (www.flaginstitute), but bear in mind that the Institute is not an official body and whilst its guidance can assist, it does not carry the same weight as information from the Government.

Half-mast means the flag is flown two-thirds of the way up the flagpole, with at least the height of the flag between the top of the flag and the top of the flagpole. Flags cannot be flown at half-mast on poles that are more than 45 degrees from the vertical, but a mourning cravat can be used instead (see the Flag Institute's website for further details).

When a flag is to be flown at half-mast, it should first be raised all the way to the top of the mast, allowed to remain there for a second and then be lowered to the half-mast position. When it is being lowered from half-mast, it should again be raised to the top of the mast for a second before being fully lowered.

When a British national flag is at half-mast, other flags on the same stand of poles should also be at half-mast or should not be flown at all. Flags of foreign nations should not be flown unless their country is also observing mourning.

APPENDIX 2

Statement to be issued by the Mayor/Chair on the announcement of the death of a senior national figure or other prominent figure

The statement should begin with a suitable expression of the sadness of the Council on hearing the announcement.

It might go on to state that flags will be flown at half-mast.

If it is an occasion when Books of Condolence will be opened, then reference could be made to that.

When a decision has been taken on the civic head's programme of events and engagements it might be stated that events are being cancelled as a mark of respect or that they will begin with a period of silence.

If in doubt, do not rush out a statement which commits the Council to action before that action has been discussed and has the necessary agreement from the Council leadership and Town Clerk.

APPENDIX 3

Those who might be invited to be present at the Reading of the Proclamation on the accession of a new Sovereign and at the Public Observance of a Two Minute Silence

The Mayor/Chair and all Members of the Council

Stotfold Town Council
Mourning Protocol

Date Reviewed: May 2025
Date to be reviewed: May 2027

Or after the death of the any member of the Royal Household mentioned in this policy

- Senior Council officers
- Deputy Lieutenants
- Past Mayors

The High Sheriff will have read the proclamation at County level but that does not prevent a Town Council from also inviting the High Sheriff to be present at a subsequent reading and that may be especially appropriate if the High Sheriff is a resident of the Town.

Notes to accompany 'Marking the death of a senior national figure'

These notes offer guidance to local authorities on marking the death of a senior national figure. They set out the protocols to be observed on the death of the Sovereign, which involves the greatest number of ceremonial elements.

All parts of the protocol apply on the death of the Sovereign, beyond that implementation of the protocol is a matter to be decided locally.

The King will be given a State Funeral.

The Prince of Wales will be given a Ceremonial Royal Funeral.

Other members of the Royal family mentioned in this policy will be given Non-Ceremonial Royal Funerals.

High Sheriffs have responsibility for reading the Proclamation within their counties and so questions about that aspect of the arrangements can be directed to the local High Sheriff or Under Sheriff.

It might also be appropriate to use elements from this guidance when responding to an incident which has led to a large number of deaths, for example, a train crash or terrorist attack.

PART 1 – Implementation of the protocol on hearing of the death

Plans to mark a death should be implemented only when a formal announcement has been made. So, for instance, if news agencies are saying that “reports are coming in of the death of ...” it must be treated with caution. If possible, wait for a more definite announcement (along the lines that “it has been announced by Buckingham Palace/Downing Street that ...”)

The local protocol should identify those who are authorised to implement the plans. For the Sovereign or another senior member of the Royal Family the decision might be delegated widely. For other figures, there may need to be consultation at the time on the ways in which the death should be marked.

PART 2 – Flag flying (also see Part 5 – Proclamation Day)

The local protocol should identify which flags are to be flown at half-mast and give clear guidance on what is meant by ‘half-mast.’ It should show who is responsible for physically lowering the flag and the contact list should list all relevant contact details.

On the formal announcement of the death, all flags are to be lowered to half-mast until 0800 on the morning following the funeral.

In the case of the death of the Sovereign, the day following the death will be Proclamation Day (the day when the new Sovereign is proclaimed). On Proclamation Day flags will, at the start of the day, be flying half-mast.

All flags will then be flown at the masthead from 1100 on D+1 (Proclamation Day) to coincide with the Reading of the Principal Proclamation and until 1300 the following day, i.e. D+2. This is because the Proclamation, having been read in London on Proclamation Day, will then be read in Belfast, Edinburgh and Cardiff on the day following Proclamation Day.

PART 3 – Books of Condolence

Books of Condolence should be opened on the first working day after the day of death. Depending on the anticipated demand, consider whether one or two books should be available. It or they should be in an easily accessible place, but quiet enough to enable those signing the books a moment of privacy and quiet reflection whilst doing so. Consideration should also be given to whether books should be available in more than one location.

Consider the setting and what should be provided: e.g. a good-sized table, covered with a cloth, a chair, a clean blotter, a supply of pens and a desk lamp if necessary. If a suitable photograph is available that might be in a frame on the table, or a small flower arrangement.

Loose leaf books /folders allow for the pages to be re-ordered, so that if the Mayor/Chair and others cannot be the first to sign the book, their signatures can nevertheless be on the first page of the bound book. Loose leaf also offers an opportunity to act if the book is defaced or offensive comments included. Pages including any questionable comments should be quietly removed until such time as a decision can be taken at senior level on whether they should be permanently excluded.

The civic head may wish to agree a form of words for a message, expressing sorrow at the news of the death. This may be the form of words that is included in a press release, Twitter, or Facebook message and on the home page of the Council's website.

Dependent on local circumstances it is suggested that Books of Condolence should be closed at the end of the day following the day of the funeral (i.e. if the funeral falls on a Thursday, Books should close at 1700 on the Friday).

Such Books of Condolence are a local record of the sentiments expressed by local people on the death of a national figure. As such, they should form part of the Council's archive, so that future generations are able easily to gain access to them and find out the way in which national events were marked in the area. It is simply not feasible for every from all such sad occasions to form part of the Royal Archives. However, in any letter of condolence from the Mayor/Chair reference should be made to the Book of Condolence and its existence in the local archives which then ensures that when that letter goes into the Royal Archives it acts as an effective cross reference.

PART 4 – Events during the period of mourning

From the day of death until the day after the funeral, careful thought should be given to the types of events and activities which Mayors/Chair should host or attend. Lunches, dinners, receptions and so on may not fit with the mood of the nation and as a mark of respect may need to be cancelled or postponed. This is a local decision and one which needs to be reached with great sensitivity. Where school visits are planned it might be helpful for the Mayor/Chair to spend time with the children, talking about the events that are unfolding. This again will need to be done with great sensitivity and should not be pressed upon a Mayor/Chair who does not feel comfortable taking on such a role.

There is value in bringing people together at these times and Councils may wish to consider arranging a church service, on the eve of the funeral, when local people can join in an act of remembrance.

PART 5 – Proclamation Day

As stated in Part 2 above, Proclamation Day is set to be the day following the death of the Sovereign (Day of Death plus 1).

The Proclamation will be made at St James' Palace at 1100 (or 1400 if it is a Sunday – but this is to be confirmed). The Proclamation is then “cascaded.”

At noon on Proclamation Day, it will be read at the Royal Exchange in the City of London.

At noon on D+2 it will be read:

In Edinburgh by Lord Lyon King of Arms at Mercat Cross and at the drawbridge to Edinburgh Castle;
In Cardiff by Wales Herald Extraordinary at Cardiff Castle;
In Belfast by Norroy and Ulster King of Arms

Once those Proclamations have been made it is appropriate for the Proclamation to be read at County, City, Borough, and Parish level. High Sheriffs will cause the Proclamation to be read at County level, and it is likely that Lord-Lieutenants will be alongside them.

Most High Sheriffs are expected to make their Reading at 1400 on D+2.

It is suggested that local civic leaders should therefore make their Readings at or after 1600.

In all cases, following the County-level Proclamation, where a local authority wishes to make the Proclamation, it is important that, before the need arises, careful thought is given to issues such as:

- Who will read the Proclamation;
- From where it will be read (one location, or more across the area?);
- The arrangements that will be made to tell the public in advance of the Reading of the Proclamation;
- Who will be invited to be present;
- Who will be in the platform party

These are local decisions but ones which require careful thought ahead of inevitable pressures at the time of the Succession.

It is hoped that the wording of the Proclamation to be read out will be easily available and a watch should be kept on the Buckingham Palace website (www.royal.gov.uk) and the Privy Council website (www.privy-council.org.uk). The High Sheriff will also have a copy of the Proclamation.

PART 6 – Dress code

A view should be taken locally on what is the correct dress in the event of the death of a Senior National figure. Whilst flags are at half mast, it might be appropriate for black ties to be worn by civic leaders and senior officers. An adequate supply of black ties should be available in the Council office.

On the day of the death and on the day of the funeral and on days between when public mourning is observed, thought should be given to the way in which the Chain of Office is worn.

PART 7 – Marking a silence

A National Two Minute Silence may mark the death of a Senior National figure.

On the death of the Sovereign there will be a Two Minute Silence at 1100 on the day of the funeral (D+10).

It may be that Silence will be kept for other members of the Royal Family, on the day of the funeral as part of the funeral service. However, action on a Silence for members of the Royal Family other than the Sovereign should await an announcement from Buckingham Palace.

Civic heads may wish to lead the Silence in an appropriate public place and thought needs to be given as to where there that might be, who will be present and how the beginning and end of the Silence will be marked (perhaps the firing of a maroon, a drum roll, bugle call or similar). It should also be established in the protocol how this information will be made public.

PART 8 – Letters of Condolence

It is usual, in the case of the death of a member of the Royal Family, for letters to be sent to the Private Secretary of the deceased, asking that condolences be passed to the next of kin and other members of the family (except in the case of the Sovereign's death, in which case they should be sent to the new Sovereign's Private Secretary asking that condolences be passed to the new Sovereign). In each case, other than exceptional local circumstances, one letter of condolence only should be sent.
